

Local CIBC branch set to mark half-century of service

By Kate Adams
BayToday.ca
Wednesday, October 21, 2009

CIBC News Release

On Thursday, October 22, CIBC branch manager Annette Phillips and her staff will be celebrating the Golden Anniversary of CIBC's branch at 1236 Algonquin & Hwy 17 in North Bay with an open house for clients and the general public.

To mark the half-century, CIBC will be making an important donation at 11 a.m. to One Kids Place to help create a facility that offers the best treatment close to home for kids with special needs and their families.

What: 50th anniversary of CIBC at Algonquin & Hwy 17; donation to One Kids Place

Who: Peter Chirico, Deputy Mayor of North Bay; Jason Corbett, Manager of Development and Community Relations, One Kids Place; Bob Bell, CIBC's Associate Vice-President, Ontario East & North Region; and Several long-term clients of CIBC and retired employees

When: 11 a.m., Thursday, October 22

Where: CIBC branch at 1236 Algonquin near Highway 17

Print View | Send to a Friend
News Response | Sports Response